

Veteran Friendly Employer 101

an introduction to veteran hiring

Culture

Opportunities

Results

Excellence

The Department of Veterans affairs projects that in just a few short years there will be more than 3.5 million veterans in the civilian workforce. With so many skilled and educated veterans looking for civilian careers, it's important to get prepared to understand how to become a veteran friendly employer.

In this workshop, you can expect to:

- ◆ Learn the value that skilled veterans bring to the civilian workplace
- ◆ Know the myths and facts of military leaders
- ◆ Assess to determine if you're ready to hire a military veteran
- ◆ Bridge the gap of communication between the employer and the veteran
- ◆ Know the six civilian in-demand skills that are enhanced by military service
- ◆ Discover what veterans and millennials have in common and why it's important
- ◆ Learn the best practices for deploying veteran talent